

Example Bat Questions that students may ask:

- Why do some bats have a tail?
- Why do some bats have wings that attach at their feet, while others don't?
- How do bats communicate?
- How do bats move around when not flying?
- How do bats drink?
- What do bats eat? Do they differ?
- How do bats find prey at night?
- Why do bats have claws on their feet?
- Why do some bats have pointy things on their noses (leaf noses)?
- What happens if a bat's wing tears?
- How do bat babies eat, drink, and get around?
- Why do bats have fur?
- Why do some bats have huge ears?
- Why do some bats have tiny ears?
- Why are some bats white?
- Why do some bats have big teeth and others have small teeth?
- Why do bats have ridges in their ears?
- Why do some bats have more than two ears?
- What is the single claw for?
- Why do bats look so mean?
- Why don't bat babies have fur?
- Why do bats hang upside down?
- Why do some bats have a snout (like a dog)?
- Do bats carry rabies?
- Why are bats considered dangerous?
- Where do bats live?
- What countries have bats?
- How are bats different from birds?
- What is the difference between a microbat and a megabat?